SMALL TALK

1. What is the most important thing you learned from your parents?

VIEWPOINT

- 2. READ Hebrews 11:6. What phrases are used to show what "everyday faith" looks like? Which verbs and describing words strike you?
- 3. READ Deuteronomy 6:1-9. What did God direct Moses to teach the Israelites (6:1)? For what very important reason (6:2)? What was the goal for the heart (6:5)? Where are these commandments to be? (6:6) What were parents to do to make this possible?
- 4. READ Luke 9:23; Hebrews 3:13. Why must a disciple learn how to deny themselves? What does it mean for a disciple to take up their cross daily and follow Jesus?

GETTING PERSONAL

- 5. What do you think of the statement, "Everyday faith is a MUST"?
- 6. What do you think about the statement, "Followers of Jesus look to mentors of everyday faith and look to mentor everyday faith?"
- 7. What do you think about the statement: "... the lifestyle you choose for yourself will either reflect a trust in God's commandments or it will reflect a trust in this world's values. When you make God's commandments your life principles, your everyday faith will shine like a light in a world of darkness."

MAKING PROGRESS

8. One of our core statements is: "Followers say, 'Follow me." What everyday faith steps can you take today? Tomorrow? This week?
